HON. THOMAS D. SLATTERY

Popular Maysville Attorney Nominated By President Wilson To Succeed Hon E. P. Morrow.

(Cincinnati Times-Star.)

Thomas D. Slattery of Maysville, Ky., was nominated Tuesday by President Wilson as United States attorney for the Eastern district of Kentucky, according to a dispatch received from Washington. He will succeed E. P. Morrow, who has been district attorney for more than four years. Mr. Morrow resides on Wallace avenue, Covington, and is a nephew of United States Senator William O. Bradley. He is a well known orator and is scheduled to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the Covington high school in June. He is at present in London, Ky., where Federal Judge Cochran is holding court. Sawyer Smith of Middlesboro, Ky., is assistant district attorney. Mr. Morrow hails from Somerset, Ky., where his father was a Circuit court judge. It was reported in Covington Tuesday afternoon that John Murphy, well-known attorney, will be named assistant district attorney. When Mr. Slattery takes office George W. DuRelle, United States attorney at Louisville, will be the only Republican left in an important Federal office in Kentucky. Slattery's nomination was recommended by United States Senator Ollie James. Mr. Slattery is a well-known attorney at Maysville.

Mr. Slattery was born in Mason County, 12 miles northwest of Maysville, and is about 43 years of age. After graduating from the rural schools, he took up law studies at Center college, Danville, graduating with high honors. He returned to Maysville, where he practiced his profession. He was elected city attorney, and after serving in that capacity for several years, was chosen county attorney, a position he now fills, at Maysville. In 1900 he was chosen chairman of the Mason County Democratic Campaign committee, and was largely instrumental in the election of James N. Kehoe to Congress.

Mr. Slattery is one of a family of thirteen boys, all more than six feet tall.

The new District Attorney is the son of Mr. Patrick Slattery of T. T.

It is proposed that our public telephone boxes shall be equipped with writing pads. It would be an act of humanity if at the same time a shelf of readable books could be added to enable one to while away the weary hours of waiting.—Punch, London.

Of the 359 electric railroads and electrical and gas corporations in New York (exclusive of New York City) in 1913, as many as 238 paid no dividends. Common stock to the par value of $96,984, 245 and preferred stock to the par value of $23,768, 395 went without dividends.

THE HIGH COST OF FREE TRADE.

The imposition by the dining car people of an additional charge of 10 cents for bread and butter, heretofore furnished free, shows how wonderfully Free-Trade Tariff has worked in reducing the price of foodstuffs and in lowering the cost of living. This is one among the many "blessings" which the foodstuffs and in lowering the cost of living. This products were put on the free list and all the Tariff duties were lowered so as to enable foreigners to crowd American producers out of the American markets.

LONDON-MADE CLOTHES.

As foreign competitors get fairly into their stride the effects of the Free-Trade Tariff become more and more apparent. Due provision was made in the Underwood law for the displacement of American labor and production in many lines of agriculture and manufacture. It takes time for the foreigners to get all the benefits of this careful regard for their interests, but they will get them. The newest development is that of having suits of clothes made in London on measurements taken in Philadelphia, with a guarantee that the suits shall be delivered not later than 28 days after they are ordered. The greatly reduced Tariff on cloth and on clothing makes it easy for London to undersell both our weavers and our clothing makers. That means loss of employment in the mills and in the clothing factories. English cloth is made by weavers earning less than half the wages paid to American weavers, and London tailors are glad to work for less than half the wages paid to American tailors. All this was well known when the Underwood Tariff was framed. The purpose of that law is being accomplished at the expense of American labor.

THE YOUNG MAN'S CHANCE.

There always is and always will be a chance at the top for the one best fitted for the position. In fact, the demand for men to fill the places that are at or near the top is likely to be more insistent than ever before. This creation of a new demand is caused by the operation of the law opposed to the interlocking directorates. The consequence will be that it will be hard to find men of the large business capacity and experience to fill the positions that will be made vacant by men strong in finance and in the business world who are leaving their boards.

Some of the men who are letting go of positions on directorates have been on as many as fifty or sixty different boards. If they should all get off one directorate for some other directorate which they considered more important, there would be the possibility of being a complete vacancy on some of the boards. Such a contingency is not likely to arise.

But the chief thing will be the need of men to fill such positions, and they must be real men. Here is a fine opportunity that faces the youth of today. No longer can he claim that the road to preferment has been closed against him. Such a claim never was really true. It is much less true now—Charles. ton Mail.

Directors of Chesapeake and Ohio, when asked regarding the dividends, said that they saw no reason why the regular quarterly 1 per cent. should not be declared at the meeting May 21.

WAR IN 1950.

The Nathan Hale of the future—"I only regret that I have but one wife to give to my country!"—April Woman's Home Companion.

WHAT IS YOUR IDEA OF THE NEXT WORLD?

In the April Woman's Home Companion Charles E. Jefferson, pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle in New York City, writes an Easter sermon entitled "The Other World." He begins by commenting on some of the unsatisfactory pictures of the future that appear in the Bible and other literature. He then adds:

"The fact is, there are no attractive pictures anywhere of the world of the dead. This is because that world is unpicturable. We mar the beauty and power of it the moment we try to form an image of it. It is like God in lying beyond the reach of the pictorial imagination. We cannot liken it to anything that is in heaven above or that is in the earth beneath. We can think heaven, but we cannot paint it."

WEEKLY SPORT LETTER.

(By C. H. ZUBER.)

Cincinnati, May 13, 1914.

Some excitement those Cincinnati Reds are creating in the National League these days. Of course, no claims for extraordinary high position are being made for the athletes whom Manager Herzog is piloting so skillfully these days, but they certainly have been surprising the natives here and hereabout, and the general verdict is that Cincinnati now has some ball team, and will have even more so before the season advances much further. The features that stand out as prominently as the hump on a camel are the aggressive work of the team as a whole, the speed on the bases, the timely hitting and the class of several of the youngsters added to the line-up since last fall. Of course, it's going to be some time before a real base ball machine is developed from the material at hand; but there is noticeable improvement in the team work from week to week, and by the middle of the season local fans will see better base ball played by the Reds than has been in evidence here on the part of the locals for years.

No more satisfactory development has taken place among the new Reds this season than that of Manager Herzog at short. When Tinker was allowed to tango to other fields last fall, there was much wailing over the "hole" that had been made in the infield, and the "loss" of the first real shortstop the team had since the plucky days of Tom Coreoran. All that sort of comment has been thrown into the discard for the very simple reason that Herzog, by his work at short has made the fans forget Joe Tinker and recall the best days of Tom Coreoran. There is not an angle of the shortstop game that Herzog doesn't play like Edwin Booth played "Hamlet," and the beauty of his work is that it is getting better all the time. And when it comes to handling the men under him like human beings, why, he's a regular "Charlie, The Good" compared with those who have gone before. Verily, that Herzog boy is some find.

The eastern teams now are among us for the first time this season. So far all comparisons between the eastern and western sections of the National League have been at long distance. Now, with the four easterners invading the wild and woolly, a real opportunity will be given to see how they will do out.

The racing game dead? Not so you can notice it. All records for high class attendance were broken at the opening of the Louisville racing season at Churchill Downs last Saturday, lovers of the sport coming from greater distances to see the Kentucky Derby than ever before to see the classic event. And there was no surprise expressed when Old Rosebud won the big event by so large a margin as to make it a walk over for him. The Louisville meeting promises to be the most successful ever held at Churchill Downs, and will be followed by equally successful meets at Douglass Park, Louisville, and at our own Latonia.

No less than three million German athletes are in training now for the opportunity of getting into the lists of the Olympic games, to be held in Berlin in 1916. Of course, all these 3,000,000 will not be entered—nor even a small section of them. But Germany is determined to have her best talent on the field, and so every athlete in the empire is being urged to try to develop something that will secure him entrance to the contests. The Germans are taking to this Olympic business as seriously as they take all their pastimes, and the result is going to be some awfully good Teuton competitions—for the boys from Yankeealand to vanquish.

Of the several fights for heavyweight honors that were to have been staged in Europe during the next few months, only one seems likely to be pulled off. This is the battle between Jack Johnson and Frank Morris, who are scheduled to beat each other up in Paris the latter part of June. For some time this battle hung fire because of the refusal of the sporting authorities to recognize Jack Johnson as the real heavy champion, and also because of suspicion of a frame-up. All doubts now have been cleared, and the fight will go on. However, the "Nothing Doing" sign has been temporarily hung on the meetings of Gunboat Smith with Georges Carpentier, the French champion, and Tar Ba.

ALL SCHOOLS ARE AFFECTED.

Frankfort, Ky., May 11.—All city schools in the State are included in the adoption of text books for the five years, to be made next month by the State commissioner, according to plan handed down by Judge Stout in the Circuit Court. The law extended cities of the first four classes, in a suit brought to construe the Judge Stout held the exception in and said the State should adopt books for all the schools.

PTISTS ARE TO BE WELL REPRESENTED.

Kentucky will have a big representation at the Southern Baptist convention which will be held this week in Nashville. Kentucky is entitled to a delegate for each $250 contributed to the cause during the past season and Kentucky, according to the report of Dr. W. D. Powell, corresponding secretary of the mission board, has oversubscribed by about $5,000 her apportionment and raised $6,000 to help pay a deficit caused by the failure of Georgia and Texas to come up to the amounts apportioned to them.

SOME SNAKE STORY.

(Mt. Olivet Advance.)
Oscar Dennis, a tenant on the farm of Grant Workman, near Pinhook, while plowing a few days ago, discovered a young turkey, which his wife had placed over a setting of eggs, in mortal combat with a large black snake. The snake coiled itself around the turkey and was in the act of devouring the head and neck when Dennis came to the rescue. With a club he beat the snake from the big bird and to his surprise discovered a white door knob imbedded in the snake's stomach. The snake measured seven feet from head to tip of tail and showed much fight when Dennis attempted to release him from the turkey.

Several theories are advanced as to how the door knob came to be in the snake's stomach, the most reasonable being that the reptile had swallowed the knob, thinking it was an egg. Again it might be said that this is a new way of beating the high cost of living.

NEVER SUSPECTED KIDNEY TROUBLE

Gained Fifty Pounds in Weight.

Some time ago I was suffering from what I supposed was rheumatism. I became so bad that I could hardly get on my feet from a sitting position. I ran down in weight from 195 to 145 pounds. I tried different kinds of medicine but received little or no help. I saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root highly recommended for kidney trouble but I never had any idea that my kidneys were affected. I thought I would try a fifty-cent bottle of Swamp-Root and see what the effect would be. I commenced taking it according to directions and in a few days I saw that it was helping me. I used the fifty-cent bottle and then bought three more dollar bottles and they completely cured me. I have gone back to my original weight—195 pounds—and I am a thorough advocate of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as I believe it to be a remarkable preparation for what it is recommended to do.

WILLIAM H. PARTCH,

New Haven, Ct.
Personally appeared before me this 4th day of September, 1919, Wm. H. Partch, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

When Will Maysville People Learn the Importance of It?

SPRINGDALE.

Mrs. Lulu Bano of Orangeburg is teaching a class in music here.

Mr. Charles R. Williams of East Limestone visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Casey motored over Wednesday P. M., and were pleased callers at Maplewood and assisted in organizing the Parent-Teacher neighbors' club at the school house in the evening.

Mr. Henry Clay Hord, the oldest living member of that prominent Kentucky family visited his old home near here last week after an absence of more than forty years. He is a son of the late Col. Thornton Hord and was born and raised on the old family homestead near Hebron, where his niece, Mrs. Emma Hord Drake now resides. Though nearing his three score and ten, Mr. Hord is still a handsome well preserved man, and is quietly resting on his oars, having acquired a competency through some fortunate investments while residing with his family in Texas. His five children are all grown, some of them married and all occupying prominent and useful vocations in life. He and his wife are now pleasantly located in Avondale, Ohio. He said a longing to see the old homestead took possession of him and he seemed to enjoy his visit greatly, though as he put it, "Few are left to know, that played with us upon the green just forty years ago."

Mr. Ward Davenport, our efficient rural mail carrier for several years, has been put to much expense and a great deal of trouble during this time from horses running away and mail wagons broken up. A few weeks ago while driving a horse that had stood many tests, and he thought could be depended on for safety completely lost his head when meeting a speeding auto in a sharp curve, and he experienced the worst runaway ever. The horse, a valuable one, was hurt, the wagon almost new, was ruined, and Mr. Davenport was very severely hurt.

He soon decided that he could not afford such risks, so he purchased an auto and will henceforth deliver the mail with less expense to himself and greater safety and dispatch to the valuable matter. He also says he will strive to set an example for the same driving and proper warnings, so much neglected, yet so badly needed on our winding, heavily shaded highways.

MORE THAN DIED IN BATTLE.

Chicago.—The report of the coroner of Cook County states that suicides are increasing faster than the population and that 328 persons were killed with firearms in the county last year—"twenty more than our losses in battle during the Spanish-American war."

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Maysville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first; But if you find 'tis from the kidneys, That serious kidney troubles may follow.

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end. You will be glad to know the following experience.

"Is the statement of a Maysville citizen. Mrs. Della Lunsford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, Ky., says: 'I attributed kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy and in a short time I was suffering from that trouble. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. At night I was restless and always felt tired. I read of a similar case being cured by Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. Before long I was completely and permanently cured. Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of this remedy.' Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lunsford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper, of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength besides. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones. Therefore we ask every mother weak, sickly or ailing child in this

CLARK PRESCRIBES READING OF BIBLE.

Washington.—Speaker Champ Clark prescribed the reading of the Bible as a cure for brain-fag.

"When I get brain-fag I read St. Paul's Epistles and the Proverbs of Solomon," he said. "When I was a boy I wouldn't read the Bible. I began to read it almost by accident as a youth, and I have been at it ever since. I found it a mine of wonderful thoughts and inspirations, wonderfully expressed."

"There are many kinds of religions, but I thank God the end of the controversial sort has come. We have reached a hearty tolerance. I firmly believe that if all religious influences were banished the world would be in a pandemonium in a twelvemonth."

WARRING FOR PEACE

Plan to Oust Huerta and Set Up Provisional Constitution Government in Mexico.

Washington, May 12.—The elimination of General Huerta and the establishment of a provisional government in which the Huerta and the rebel factions would be represented, is contemplated in a plan which the South American mediators now are working out to be proposed for the solution of the entire problem.

Expressions of confidence that mediation would be successful in averting war between the United States and Mexico came from several members of the Cabinet today after President Wilson had discussed the whole situation with his official family.

It was learned that the proposal might be setting up of a temporary government would be undertaken by a commission composed of five persons; two of them to be named by Huerta; two by the Constitutionalists and the fifth by the mediators.

While the mediators have withdrawn their invitation to send delegates to the conference it is generally believed information is being sought as to the Constitutionalists' would

EX-CHAMPS PUT IT ON THE CUBS

By the Score of 7 to 5—Manager Childs of the Visitors Ejected By Police By Order of the Umpire.

In their initial appearance of the season here yesterday the Portsmouth club defeated the home club by the score of 7 to 5.

Thompson pitched the whole game for the locals and had things pretty much his own way until Sir Peter Childs, manager of the Portsmouth club, got into an argument with the umpire and was escorted from the diamond by the police, when Umpire Price thought he was going a little too strong.

Nick Carter, the former Maysville favorite, was in the box for Portsmouth for six innings, when he was replaced by Jacobs, who in turn gave way to Hoffer in the eighth frame.

As soon as the Maysville team gets the habit of blowing up in one inning of every game out of their system, they will begin to win games.

The score of yesterday's game follows:

NOTES.

Portsmouth plays their last game here this afternoon. Game called at 3:15.

The phenomenal playing of the Newport team is merely a flash in the pan and as soon as they begin playing ball according to the players that they now have, they will drop down to where they belong.

Either Saaford or Connors will pitch for the locals this afternoon.
